Dinner Meeting

Monday, November 18, 2013
Holiday Social at 6:00pm, Dinner at 6:30pm, Program at 7:15pm

Fellowship Hall, Trinity Presbyterian Church
3115 Providence Road
Charlotte, NC 28211

Upcoming Dinner Program

Doris Duke: Woman of Contradiction

Monday, November 18, at Trinity Presbyterian Church. We will begin with a holiday social and book sale at 6 pm featuring appetizers and festive beverages, followed by dinner at 6:30 and the program at 7:15. Those not having dinner are welcome to enjoy the program at no charge. There will be a special history book sale sponsored by the Public Library starting promptly at 6 p.m. and continuing after the dinner. All proceeds will go to the Carolina Room of the Charlotte Mecklenburg Public Library. Additionally, the family of the late Dr. Norris Preyer asked MHA to assist in placement of his library. Books from Dr. Preyer’s collection will also be offered for sale separately with proceeds going to MHA. Cash and checks for both book groups will be accepted, and all sales are final. This will be a traditional book sale and not a silent auction and is open to the public.

Doris Duke: a Woman of Contradiction

Rosalie Reynolds and Pat Martin will present a special program including the personal stories of Rosalie Reynolds, whose mother was a life-long friend of Doris Duke. This presentation is based on the incredible history of Doris that has recently been researched by Mary Samouelian at Duke University. The Doris Duke Collection housed at Duke University contains approximately 1,100 linear feet of letters, financial statements, inventories, memorabilia, architectural drawings, photographs, film, and audio recordings. The personal and the historic sources will give you the sense of a very special and eclectic woman who far too often is known only for the more sensational stories of her life. Doris Duke was so much more than the tabloids reported and her legacy is remarkable.
Remarks from the President

Happy Fall to everyone! What a great time we had at the September dinner meeting at The Reid House and the Matthews Heritage Museum. Thanks to Bill Helms, Paula Lester, and Barbara Taylor for making that evening so enjoyable. A field trip was fun and there will be more of them in the future.

I really look forward to our November 18th dinner meeting at Trinity Presbyterian. Our now annual wine and appetizer time beginning at 6:00 is always fun and a book sale just makes it better. Dr. Preyer’s family is pleased that some of his books will be owned by MHA members who care so much about our county’s history. We have asked Southern Gourmet (who catered the September dinner) to provide catering for our November meeting. Please make your reservations now to attend. Mark your calendars for our two Spring Dinner Meetings. Monday, March 17, MHA Past President Chase Saunders will present a program on the History of Charlotte Business. Monday, May 12, our speaker will be Mecklenburg SAR Past President, and Revolutionary War presenter, Tom Phiegar.

I asked Scott Warren, Director of the President James K. Polk State Historic Site to give us an update on their financial situation, which is elsewhere in this newsletter.

We will mail annual membership renewal letters in November. You will find a membership renewal blank in this newsletter. If you would take the opportunity to fill it out and either mail it or bring it to the November dinner meeting with your check, it will save us postage. Renewals will also be available at the Nov 18 dinner. We need your help to increase our membership, so please share this membership opportunity with family, neighbors and friends who have an interest in history. Bring them to a meeting!

We welcome your suggestions to improve MHA and its contribution to the preservation of Mecklenburg County history. Everyone have a blessed Christmas season and we’ll be back together in March.

Message from the Pres. James K. Polk State Historic Site

First, I want to say thank you to MHA for the passionate plea for funds in your President’s letter sent to the state legislators and from many other MHA members. You have been such a strong proponent of the site for many years and you really stepped up last spring. Your enthusiasm was contagious and it really helped to show the “folks in Raleigh” what we are and what we are all about. Thank you again!

Secondly, I want to brief you on our financial situation. I finally, after many weeks, received a certified budget from the state for FY 13-14.

In comparison to last year’s budget, we are actually looking pretty decent. Last year (FY 12-13) my appropriated budget from the state was about $101,000 of which my final amount spent was $92,000. This included salary monies, utilities and so forth. This year my appropriated amount for FY 13-14 will be $103,000, an actual increase of $2000. Go figure!

All that being said, my repair monies have been drastically slashed. Let’s hope nothing breaks down.

If we do receive monetary donations, trust those monies will be deposited with the Support Group and in turn any monies donated go toward our educational programming, maintenance needs or supplies for programs such as the upcoming President Polk Birthday celebration on Saturday, November 2.

Tax-deductible donations can be made to: Polk Memorial Support Fund, Inc., P. O. Box 475, Pineville, NC 28134.

DAR Projects at Sugaw Creek’s First Cemetery

On October 10, 2013, a joint meeting of the Mecklenburg and Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence Chapters of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution was held at Sugaw Creek Presbyterian to celebrate the rededication of the historic stone gate structure and the Alexander Craighead monument there.

Through a grant from the national DAR, the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence Chapter sponsored stabilization of historic stone gate columns containing an early DAR marker at Sugaw Creek’s first cemetery on West Craighead Road. Sugaw Creek Presbyterian, established in 1755, was the first church organized in Mecklenburg County. Born in Ireland, Rev. Alexander Craighead (1707-1766) served as the first pastor of the church 1758-1766. Rev. Craighead has been credited with inspiring the courageous actions of the signers of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence. His is the oldest grave at this cemetery.

In 2010-11, the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence Chapter, NSDAR, organized in 1912, undertook a project to locate and record the condition of each of the historic markers placed by the chapter during its 100 year history. It was learned that the stone gate columns were in imminent danger of collapse. Susan Waldkirch, Chapter Regent, stated, “We are thrilled with the restoration work at this pre-Revolutionary War cemetery. The columns have been stabilized and set on new foundations by Ram Jack and the final repair will be to the stone steps between the columns.”

An additional project, sponsored by the Mecklenburg Chapter NSDAR (Anne Glover, Regent), also organized in 1912, was completed simultaneously. The Mecklenburg Chapter’s goal was to properly mark the grave of Rev. Alexander Craighead. Space on his grave marker, placed in the 1930’s, allowed wording to be added. Future generations will now be aware of the magnitude of his contribution to Mecklenburg’s history. Sugaw Creek’s Historic Preservation Committee worked with both DAR chapters and is profoundly grateful to everyone who made this work possible.

MHA wishes to publicize the fact that grant money is available through the DAR to local non-profit organizations, either directly as a 501(c)3 entity or with the sponsorship of a DAR chapter.
A Lovely Christmas Tea

The MHA Docents invite you to attend our annual Christmas Tea on Tuesday December 3rd. Each year for our December meeting we host this event as our holiday gift to the entire history community, especially staff and volunteers at our region’s historic sites. We always feature a program that is entertaining as well as informative followed by Tea and refreshments provided by our group. This year we have a special treat.

Tom Hanchett, staff historian of Levine Museum of the New South, will present a program of history and music by Charlotte’s Flat Possum Hoppers stringband. Back in the 1920s through the 1940s Charlotte was a hotbed of traditional music, thanks to WBT radio, which broadcast live stringbands and gospel groups daily. Bill Monroe, the father of bluegrass music, waxed his first recordings here and the Carter Family trio cut their last discs in Charlotte. The Briarhoppers, Arthur Smith, and J.E. Mainer’s Mountaineers made early records, then stayed on as the mainstay of the local music scene for decades.

The Flat Possum Hoppers formed about 2006 to recreate music of that era. We will hear Tom on the fiddle and former Charlotte Folk Society President Tom Estes on banjo and vocals. Other members of the group who will be with them if possible are CPCC’s Dean Mark Helms on mandolin, and CPCC professor John Cone on guitar. Ruth Kee Wherry, who sang with the Mainer band on WAYS radio in the 1950s, plays bass with the group.

After the program we will have our Tea, which always turns out to be an early lunch – our docents all seem to have a way in the kitchen – and enjoy meeting the musicians and other history folks.

We especially want to invite those of you who are interested in becoming MHA Docents to come to the Tea. We’d like for you to meet us and see how much fun we have learning our local history and sharing it with others. We’ll begin accepting docent dues for 2014 soon. Just let one of us know you’re interested in joining.

The Tea will be on Tuesday, December 3rd in the Fellowship Hall of Sugaw Creek Presbyterian Church. We’ll have a short business meeting at 9:45 followed at 10:00 by the musical program and then the Tea. We hope to see you there.

Now Thrice Welcome Christmas
From “Poor Robin’s Almanack” for 1695.

Now thrice welcome, Christmas, which brings us good cheer,
Minced pies and plum porridge, good ale and strong beer;
With pig, goose, and capon, the best that can be,
So well doth the weather and our stomachs agree.

Observe how the chimneys do smoke all about,
The cooks are providing for dinner, no doubt;
For those on whose tables no victuals appear,
O may they keep Lent all the rest of the year!

With holly and ivy so green and so gay,
We deck up our houses as fresh as the day,
With bays and rosemary, and laurel complete;
And every one now is a king in conceit.

History Lecture Series
Beyond the Wagon Road
In February, the MHA Docents will hold their biennial series of history lectures. We have a fine lineup of topics and presenters; see the details and registration slip at right.

In the past, this series has been popular with both long time and especially with new residents of our area. It is one of the ways we carry out our mission of presenting regional history to the community. Registration is now underway, so do respond as soon as possible to reserve your space, and feel free to share the information with anyone who might be interested. Do include your email address and phone number so we can contact you if there is a last minute cancellation due to weather, as has happened in the past. All three lectures will be held at the Levine Museum of the New South, and the museum invites all attendees to tour the museum after any of the lectures at no additional charge. You may park for free at the 7th Street Station garage; the museum will validate your parking ticket. Saturday validations are good for the entire day.

Historic Walter Brem House to Celebrate its 110th Anniversary

Sodoma Law is honored to celebrate a Charlotte and Mecklenburg County treasure by recognizing the 110th anniversary of the Walter Brem House, a Mecklenburg County listed historic property. The event will take place at the house at 211 East Boulevard, on Thursday, November 7. As part of this celebration, Sodoma Law is asking the community to submit stories about, and photos of, the Walter Brem House. Photos will be showcased inside the house and on social media. For more information and to submit your stories and photos, contact Jan Van Bergen at jvanbergen@sodomalaw.com.

Completed in 1903, the Walter Brem House still exhibits the grandeur of the fine Colonial Revival homes that were built at the turn of the century. As one of Charlotte’s first examples of the style, this magnificent two-story residence was designed by C.C. Hook, a prominent Charlotte architect. C.C. Hook also designed other notable buildings such as the Duke Mansion and Charlotte City Hall. When constructed, the Walter Brem House was located on a fashionable residential street, which was the showplace of Dilworth, Charlotte’s first streetcar suburb.
